

In Memoria
Miguel A. Marino (1940-2016)

Distinguished Professor Emeritus at UC Davis

Recipient of CWEMF's Career Achievement Award (2011) for significant contributions in developing, using or promoting computer modeling to analyze California's water-related problems, increasing the usefulness of models in water management analyses in California, promoting sound quantitative analyses in water management decisions and raising public awareness and improving public acceptance of the role of modeling.